Mi-mi-mi-mi! Just givin' my golden throat a work-out before I rehearse my new rock band, the Looney Tunes! If you've seen our cover, you know what I'm talkin' about!

Taz gave me the big idea to break into the music biz, an' not just 'cause he's the expert on breakin' things, either. I seen him one day in his natural jungle habitat, bangin' away on a drum. I thought to myself, "Ya know, it's not everybody who can get up a good rhythm on the drums like that, especially bangin' 'em with his head!" So the Tasmanian Devil became our percussion player!

Then came Porky, master of the saxophone. Looks great in a porkpie hat, don't he?

You've all seen Daffy in Who Framed Roger Rabbit?, right? Who didn't? Then you know that when it comes to kiddin' on the keyboards, there's nobody that can top Daffy Duck! So he was an easy choice for this band! The guy's a real wise-quacker, what can I say?

So we're boardin' our bus and takin' a tour of the entire U.S. of A., stoppin' and playin' all over the map! Wanna come along? What are ya waitin' for, an invitation?

Well, then, this is an invitation!

Radiant,
Absolutely nice,

Bunnies are Intelligent,
Totally Cute,

There's sumtin' about me that just inspires poetry!

Dear Bugs,

I wrote a poem for you:

Wile E. Coyote's Secrets for the Super Genius

▲ Hello again, fellow members of the Super Genius Society! It is I, Wile E. Coyote, your mentor, your idol, your role model! I have discovered yet another method of taking advantage of those less well endowed in the smarts department . . . that is to say, the species known as rabbits! That is why I have become . . . a rock star agent!

▶ Rabbit (or any) rock stars have to sign a contract! A contract means ink. (Now for the Super Genius part!) I can get said rabbit rock star to sign a contract that's been written in invisible ink! Yes, I knew you would love it!

Using invisible ink is as easy as A, B, C! ▶
(A) Take some plain lemon juice (though I'm told potato juice, onion juice or cola will work, too). Dip in a pen or brush and write as usual.

▲ (B) Let dry. Then, using a lamp, hold the invisible-inked paper over it.

▲ Once I countersign it, it will be a legal document! Simple, yes?

▲ But simplicity is the very soul of Super Genius!

... and they don't come much simpler than yours truly, Wile E. Coyote, Super Genius!

AH, ROCK AND ROLL! A GLAMOROUS LIFESTYLE, ISN'T IT?

Greetings, lovers of everything that's classic in fine art! It is I, Wolfgang Amadeus Duck, known to his friends as Wolfgang Amadeus Duck!

This time we're gonna draw the chubby contours of my colleague in cacophony, the ol' Porkeroo! Now, there's a classic! Look at those chunky cheeks! That noble nose! His face is a symphony in swine!

Tune up by drawing the simple shapes on the left. . . until you're ready to compose (get it?) Porky's entire face on the right. Don't worry if you keep hitting bum notes. . . you can try tracing the ol' Pigmeister until you get the rhythm!

See! Nothing to it! By the way, art, like music, takes lotsa practice! So if your friends don't like your drawings, just tune 'em out! Hooh-hooh!

ME.O.W.

Welcome again, M.E.O.W. members! You'll recall that the big secret is that M.E.O.W. stands for "Mighty Exalted Order of the Whisker." It's not—as was once believed in ancient times— "We Only Eat Mice" backwards. Why, we eat anything, backwards or forwards! Now, join me in the even-more-secret M.E.O.W. chant:

*You want your mice collected?
Call M.E.O.W., M.E.O.W., M.E.O.W.
You want your fish inspected?
Call M.E.O.W., M.E.O.W., M.E.O.W.
You want your birds protected?
Call M.E.O.W., M.E.O.W., M.E.O.W.
We the members solemnly vow
To stuff our bellies full of chow!*

Today's project is to plant a tree. Why? Because trees provide a natural nesting place for birds, and birds provide a natural food supply for cats. Get the picture?

Planting's a cinch. You can grow all kinds of plants using jelly jars filled with soil. Here are some plants I started growing with stuff I found around the house . . .

You can grow shoots from any dried bean or from seeds from an apple. But what we want is a tree, and here's a way you can watch it grow. All you need is: an avocado pit, three toothpicks, a glass of water.

Stick the toothpicks into the pit so that they'll hold it in place over the water. The bottom of the avocado pit should be just barely under water.

In a couple of weeks, roots will grow out of the bottom and an avocado tree will begin growing out of the top! When the birds start to nest in it, it's suppertime!

Of course, maybe you don't want to wait that long for dinner. That's why I always keep around these special quick-growing seeds!

See, wha'd I tell you? Birdies—look at the birdies! An important rule of thumb (green thumb, that is) is never plant anything higher than you on the food chain!

Greetings, FAB SCENE 'ZINERs! Petunia Pig here, and boy, have I been busy! I've just spent two years—er, I mean weeks—on the road with popdom's freshest new band, THE LOONEY TUNES! That's right, the too-cool trio-plus-one themselves: Bugs, Daffy, Taz, and personal fave—Porky! Let's not waste another word as we go—

The ON TOUR WITH LOONEY TUNES!

When Bugs plays a guitar solo, he really plays solo!

What an electronics genius that Daffy is! Nothing's beyond his reach!

Fab Scene Fact!
How does Porky keep the keys of his saxophone so loose? We'll let him tell it: "Th-that's oil, folks!"

Yours truly with heartthrob hep-cat Porky, between sets. Romance in the air? Hey, I don't kiss and tell!

Nobody—but nobody—keeps a beat better than Taz! Maybe next time he oughta wait until the song starts, though.

Fab Scene Fact!
Taz's drumming has been known to break the sound barrier! You tell him to keep it down!

Wherever they go, the Looney Tunes are pursued by autograph hounds.

Well, it looks like Daffy found an extension cord! Now all they need are some new fuses!

Fab Scene Fact!
Synthesizer maestro Daffy Duck once attended Juilliard! He attended to the mopping, the sweeping, the dusting . . .

NOW AH SAY, BOY, HOW DO YOU EXPECT TO LEARN ANYTHING ABOUT MUSIC BY JUST SITTING AND LISTENING TO IT ALL DAY LONG? YOU'RE GONNA HAVE TO MAKE YOUR OWN MUSIC! IT'S EASY AND LOTS OF FUN, TOO, EGGBERT! TRUST ME!

START WITH ANY OL' PIECE OF WRITING PAPER! ROLL IT UP, HUM A LITTLE DITTY THROUGH ONE END, AN' LISTEN TO HOW IT SOUNDS ON THE OTHER END! TRY IT WITH AN EMPTY PAPER TOWEL ROLL, TOO!

NOW AH SAY, BOY, TRY THIS: FOLD A PIECE OF WAXED PAPER OR TISSUE IN HALF, AND WRAP THE TEETH OF A COMB IN THE FOLD.

PUT YOUR LIPS OVER THE PAPER COVERING THE COMB'S TEETH. TRY NOT TO GET THE PAPER WET. HUM A TUNE AS YOU MOVE THE COMB SIDE-TO-SIDE LIKE YOU'RE EATIN' AN EAR O' CORN!

LOOK! A XYLOPHONE FROM POP BOTTLES! TUNE 'EM BY FILLING ONE BOTTLE WITH WATER CLOSE TO THE TOP. THAT'S "DO," THE FIRST NOTE. FILL THE SECOND BOTTLE WITH AS MUCH WATER, BUT KEEP POURING WATER OUT TILL YOU GET "RE," THE NEXT NOTE! KEEP DOIN' THAT 'TIL YOU GET THE WHOLE SCALE!

OF COURSE, AH SAY, YA DON'T HAVE TO STRIKE 'EM. YOU CAN ALSO BLOW A SHEET OF AIR ACROSS THE HOLE AT THE TOP TO GET THE NOTE!

GET TWO COFFEE CANS WITH PLASTIC LIDS FOR BONGO DRUMS! THE CANS SHOULD VARY IN SIZE. TAPE 'EM SO THAT THE LIDS ARE LEVEL, AND HOLD 'EM BETWEEN YOUR KNEES AS YOU SIT 'N' PLAY! CRAZY, MAN!

COOKING POT LIDS OR TOPS OF GARBAGE CANS MAKE LOUD CYMBAL SOUNDS! JUST DON'T HOLD 'EM TOO CLOSE TO YOUR FACE WHEN YOU CRASH 'EM. AH SEEN SOME REAL STUPID MUSICIANS MAKE THAT MISTAKE!

SOME SMART ONES, TOO! OOOH, THAT SMARTS! HEY, I MADE A FUNNY! THAT'S A JOKE, SON!

AROUND THE WORLD IN A HAZE WITH SPEEDY GONZALES

¡ANDELE! ¡ANDELE! ¡ARRIBA! ¡HOLA, MIS AMIGOS! Have you ever grown bored on a long car trip? I get bored, and a long trip for me is six seconds! But you're stuck in the back seat much longer than that! Don't worry—I've got some great games to play! They'll help you pass the time quickly, whether your parents are driving to Mexico, Milwaukee or Mars!

El Gato! That's what mice in Mexico yell when "El Gato" (the cat!) is on the loose! But it's also the code word of this game! Write "el gato" down the side of a pad. Then, next to each letter, jot down the names of things you see on the road that begin with each of the letters in "el gato"! You might see an elm tree, a lamp, a gate, an apple stand, a turnpike, and an overpass! The first person to spot one object for each letter shouts, "El Gato!" and wins the game!

Letters and Licenses! Here are five pictures of Looney Tunes characters. Cut one out and hold it in your hand. The other player has to guess which one you've picked. But he can only do it by looking at license plates from passing cars and picking one letter from each. For instance, if a car drives by with the license plate "ALY-381", your opponent has to pick one letter from it ("L", say), and ask if that letter's in the character's name. If you're holding Pepe Le Pew's picture, the answer's "yes". If you've got Bugs Bunny, the answer's "no." Your opponent only gets five guesses!

A.K.A. This one also uses license plates. When you spot a license plate with three letters in a row on it (like "CCM-308"), you must come up with a funny phrase that those letters might stand for. ("CCM" might mean "Can't Catch Me!") The funniest phrase wins.

These games should make traveling time go even faster than me! That's all for now, friends! ¡Adiós, amigos! Gotta run!

ELMER FUDD'S GREAT MYSTEWIES

There is another dimension beyond this one! One that has stwange cweatures! Awesome monsters! Horrors beyond belief! I don't mean an episode of "thirty something" ... I'm talking about ... unidentified flying objects ... U.F.O.s!

Here in Awizona, people have cwaimed to have spotted hundweds of U.F.O.s! They've even said that they've been kidnapped and experimented on by aliens! They stated that the aliens made evil duplicates of them! To this I say ...

Let's talk to this local bystander ...

But as I weft, I had a stwange sensation. Could that have been a . . . U.F.O.? Is there weally any such thing?

BAWONEY!!!

All Good Tunes Must

Come To An End

It didn't take long for the Looney Tunes to take the country by storm. And why not? Bugs, Daffy, Porky and the Tasmanian Devil forgot more about being cool than most other rock bands ever knew! Soon, fans and bands the world over were imitating their hip style of dressing, talking and playing! Their videos were played on all the cable channels—even the all-news ones! Their albums sold by the millions! Nothing could stop them now!

Well, almost nothing!

The Looney Tunes were recording songs for their newest album. The studio was rocking! Bugs burst into a screaming guitar solo that raged on, to Taz's hard-driving back-beat. Porky's solo was even hotter! Daffy had to keep up by playing six keyboards at once!

But the music stopped dead when the door opened . . . and in walked Petunia Pig! "Hi, boys!" she giggled.

"P-P-P-Petunia, d-dearest, darling, sweetheart," stammered Porky. "What are you doing here?"

"Yeah, who invited her?" demanded Daffy.

Petunia ignored Daffy. "You all know I'm such a big fan of yours! Especially Porky! He's my favorite!" She batted her long lashes. "I hope you don't mind if I just sit here and listen!"

"Well," Bugs said thoughtfully, "I don't suppose dere's any harm."

"Good!" She ran and sat right next to Porky. "Now go ahead! Play! Just pretend I'm not even here!"

The music started again. People in the control booth told each other, "Looks like a hit—a monster hit!" Then, Petunia got an idea.

"Porky's the real star of this band! People should be able to hear him better!" She followed the wire of his microphone to its amplifier . . . and turned it all the way up! Soon, the sound of Porky's saxophone became overwhelming. The walls shook. Glass broke. People spoke to each other, but they could only watch each other's mouths move. It was so loud, people in other states were calling to complain. There was a news report that passing planes had their radar jammed by the shrieking saxophone!

"Petunia!" Daffy was finally heard to scream as he turned down the amp. "What's the big idea?"

"I couldn't hear Porky, and that's what the public wants, after all! He is the best in the band!"

"The best? The best?" Daffy was so flustered he could barely speak. "Just get one thing straight, Petunia. I'm the best! Got it? Me."

"If you say so," said Petunia, unruffled. "But this band has no commercial potential at all!"

"B-b-but there are no commercials on a r-record, dear, dollface," replied Porky.

"Just look at you," she said, pointing to Taz. "You call yourself a rock star! You're just not cute enough!"

Taz looked in a studio mirror and frowned. "Taz . . . not cute? Girls not like Taz? Not pull at clothing and rip off souvenirs?" He looked completely disappointed.

"Let me take care of him. You boys write some new songs while I give Taz the ol' home permanent."

When Petunia and Taz returned hours later, Taz definitely looked different. His fur was frizzed, styled, moussed, curled and blowdried, with a huge pink ribbon at the top. "I'd say the poor guy looks like a French poodle," said Daffy, "but that would be an insult to French poodles!"

Bugs and Daffy pulled Porky aside. "You like bein' in dis band, right?" asked Bugs.

"Y-yeah," said Porky, hesitating.

"And ya like Petunia, too, don't you?" asked Daffy.

"Y-y-yeah," replied Porky, hesitating even more.

"Well, ya gotta choose. It's us . . . or her."

And that is why the music trade papers have announced the start of four brand-new solo careers. Daffy Duck started a new country music band. Unfortunately, the country is Romania.

Bugs leads a banjo bluegrass band, which should have an album out as soon as they find a stadium that has enough grass they can paint blue.

Taz plays in a surf punk band with a version of Frank Sinatra's song "My Way." It's called "Get Out of My Way."

And Porky was supposed to release a duet album with his singing partner Petunia. But they broke up. The newspaper said it was due to "creative differences."
